Principal's Desk

As we step into the month of February, we welcome the refreshing season of spring, a time of new beginnings, growth, and renewed energy. Just as nature flourishes, this is the perfect time to refresh focus and dedication toward studies, as the examination season is approaching.

This is a crucial period to revise, practice, and strengthen understanding of various subjects. Making the most of this time with a well-structured study plan, consistency, and a positive mindset is key. Success is not just about hard work but also about smart preparation and self-discipline. Alongside studies, taking short breaks, staying active, and eating healthy will help keep the mind and body energized.

Spring also symbolizes hope and perseverance—so this season should be embraced with confidence and determination. With focus and dedication, this time can be turned into a stepping stone for success. Wishing everyone a productive and inspiring February!

Ink Your Inspiration

The students of Ganga International School, Sawda, showcased their exceptional handwriting skills and artistic flair in the “Ink Your Inspiration” competition, sponsored by Pilot Pen. This prestigious event focused on the art of calligraphy, encouraging students to express creativity through beautifully crafted lettering. With dedication and precision, the participants demonstrated their mastery over strokes, curves, and fonts, making their work stand out among many talented entries. Their efforts were rewarded as they secured top positions, bringing pride and recognition to the school. The competition not only enhanced their calligraphy skills but also instilled patience, concentration, and a love for artistic writing. This achievement reflects the school's commitment to nurturing creativity and excellence in every field, motivating students to continue honing their talents.

Grandparent's Day

Ganga International School, Sawda, celebrated Grandparents Day on 8th February 2025 with great enthusiasm and warmth, honoring the invaluable love and wisdom of grandparents. The event began with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp, followed by a Saraswati Vandana, invoking divine blessings. The Guest of Honor, Mr. Vikas, an alumnus, graced the occasion, and Principal Ma'am, Ms. Prerana Chauhan, extended her heartfelt greetings, emphasizing the vital role of grandparents in shaping young minds.

Students presented vibrant dance performances, including a heartfelt "Thank You" dance dedicated to grandparents and a patriotic dance that filled the atmosphere with pride. Expressive speeches and poetry recitations added an emotional touch, leaving the audience deeply moved.

A magic show mesmerized everyone with incredible tricks, making it a highlight of the event. Following this, a tree plantation drive was organized, where grandparents planted trees on the school campus—a symbolic act of passing on blessings to future generations.

The celebration also featured a subject-wise exhibition, where different rooms were allotted to various subjects. Students showcased models and working models, explaining their concepts to visiting grandparents, who explored the exhibits with pride and admiration.

The event concluded on a joyous note, strengthening the special bond between grandparents and grandchildren, making it a truly memorable celebration.

Innovate & Inspire

Creation

Ganga International School, Sawda, recently organized a vibrant subject-wise school exhibition, providing students with a platform to showcase their creativity and knowledge. The event was made even more special with the presence of grandparents, who were invited to witness the young learners' enthusiasm and innovation. Each subject had its dedicated corner—from language and literature to science, mathematics, and art—where students displayed their working and static models. They confidently explained their projects, demonstrating their understanding and learning.

Learning

The science section featured fascinating experiments, while the mathematics corner presented interactive models explaining complex concepts in an engaging way. The language and literature corner highlighted creative writing and linguistic skills, and the art section showcased beautiful paintings and craftwork.

WRITE IT Out

Have you ever thought about how important good handwriting is? It's not just about making your work look neat—it's a skill that shapes your personality and discipline. In school, clear and beautiful handwriting helps you express your thoughts better and makes your work easier to read. This is why learning calligraphy is so important. Calligraphy is not just an art; it teaches patience, focus, and creativity. When you practice it, you develop better hand control, which improves your overall writing. Good handwriting leaves a lasting impression, whether in exams, notes, or future professional work.

Imagine signing important documents one day—wouldn't you want your signature to stand out? By learning calligraphy, you also open doors to creative fields like designing and publishing. So, take pride in your handwriting and make an effort to improve it—it's a skill that will benefit you for a lifetime!

GOOD TOUCH BAD TOUCH Workshop

Ganga International School, Sawda, in collaboration with Delhi Police, conducted an insightful workshop on Good Touch and Bad Touch to educate students about personal safety and awareness. The session aimed to empower children with knowledge about safe and unsafe physical interactions, ensuring their well-being in various environments.

The workshop was led by officials from Delhi Police, who engaged students through interactive discussions, real-life examples, and short role-play activities. They explained the importance of recognizing inappropriate behavior, setting personal boundaries, and seeking help from trusted adults when needed. The session also emphasized the significance of open communication with parents and teachers.

Students actively participated by asking questions and sharing their thoughts, making the workshop highly engaging. The initiative was well-received, fostering a safe and supportive environment for young learners. The school principal, Ms. Prerana Chauhan, expressed gratitude to Delhi Police for their valuable contribution and encouraged students to be vigilant and aware of their rights.

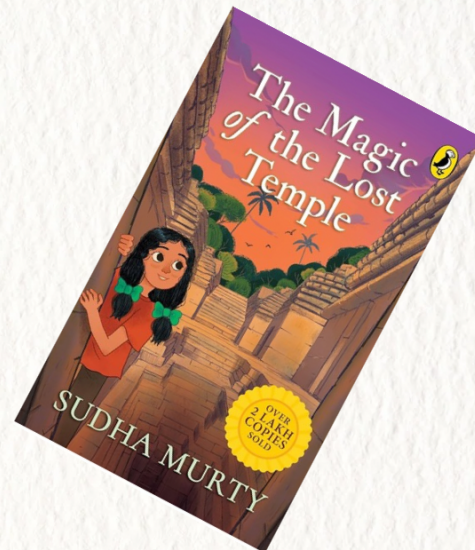

This workshop was a crucial step in promoting child safety and awareness, reinforcing the school's commitment to holistic education and student well-being.
